Sunday 25 October - Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Today's Gospel centres around love, a potentially difficult concept because it is a word which is so over-used. The love which Jesus is speaking of is what is known in Greek as agapeic love – that unconditional, self-giving love of the highest order; the kind of love which knows no boundaries. We hear how the Sadducees and Pharisees are trying to catch Jesus out. In their desire to score points they fail to see who is standing right in front of them. It would be easy for us to be critical of them. It might be better for us if we could look at them with some compassion and catch sight of the way we, too, might be with them, failing to love as we are called to love. The love which Jesus speaks of is all embracing. It is not the love between two people but the love we express to everyone we know and even those we don't, especially those who are in most need.

Live Streaming

A number of people have enquired about the costs of live streaming. The costs can be broken down in the following way. Cost of upgrading and buying new equipment £5500. It is hoped that this equipment will last 15 years or more. Some of the equipment it has replaced is nearly 18 years old. The cost of the internet and hosting of the live stream and recordings via Church Services TV is £240 per month. Naturally, we understand that these times are difficult, but any contribution towards these costs would be greatly appreciated.
